Organisational Overview

VACCHO is Victoria's peak representative Aboriginal health body and champions community control and health equality for Aboriginal communities. We are a centre of expertise, policy advice, training, innovation and leadership in Aboriginal health. VACCHO advocates for the health equality and optimum health of all Aboriginal people in Victoria.

Unit Overview

VACCHO's Education and Training Unit (ETU) is responsible for maintaining VACCHO as a Registered Training Organisation.

ETU plays a key role in achieving the short and long-term goals of the VACCHO membership and the development of a highly skilled Aboriginal Health Workforce and Aboriginal Community Controlled Health sector in Victoria.

VACCHO's ETU commitment is to building on individual and community knowledge that values Aboriginal culture and contributes to community self-determination.

Role Overview

The purpose of this role is to assist in the facilitation of the Cultural Safety Training (CST) and to assist in the development of learning materials and resources.

Key Responsibilities

1. Participate in, delivery, review and continuous improvement of Cultural Safety Training for VACCHO.
2. Assist in the development of the training learning materials and resources, including facilitation guides to meet a range of training and learning models and approaches.
3. Developing additional modules as required enhancing the core package to represent Victorian Aboriginal culture and society.
4. Delivery and co-delivery of cultural safety training workshops with government, non-government organisations and agencies, Aboriginal Community Controlled Organisations (ACCO's) and mainstream organisations as required.
5. Contribute to the effective marketing of VACCHO's cultural safety training packages through workshops, forums and trade events as required.
6. Assist with the management and collation of participant evaluations as part of an evaluation framework.
7. Undertake other duties which are appropriate to the level of the position, as directed by the Director to meet ETU objectives.
